DePaul Senior Living Communities Acquires Greenbrier

January 21, 2008 (Fairmont, NC) – DePaul Adult Care Communities, Inc., a not-for-profit organization that provides assisted living residential services for seniors, has assumed operation of Greenbrier, a senior living community located at 703 South Walnut Street in Fairmont, NC. DePaul’s North Carolina operations are headquartered in Winston-Salem. The agency owns and operates 11 senior living facilities in North Carolina which serve older adults in a supportive environment while offering the comforts of home and a commitment to enhancing quality of life.

Greenbrier employs a dedicated team of senior living professionals who are committed to providing high-quality care at affordable prices. Services include 24-hour access to staff, assistance with medication management, meals, menu planning by registered dietitians, housekeeping and laundry services, and a full schedule of activities, social events, and worship services.

“We’re excited to welcome Greenbrier into the DePaul family of programs and look forward to serving residents and the community by offering quality services at affordable costs,” said Paul Preston, DePaul Vice President. Admission applications to Greenbrier are currently being accepted. For additional information or to schedule a tour of the facility, contact Phyllis Exum, Administrator, at (910) 628-9021.

DePaul is a private not-for-profit agency founded in 1958 that offers quality, affordable living options for seniors with 11 communities in North Carolina and five in Upstate New York.
