

GATES-CHILI POST

Thursday, May 26, 2016

www.gateschilipost.com

Vol. 17, No. 22 ■ 50 cents

COMMUNITY

Westwood Commons continues Mother's Day tea party tradition

Submitted to the Post

Mothers, grandmothers and women residents at Westwood Commons, a DePaul Senior Living Community in North Chili, were recently honored with homemade flower pot sachets and an old fashioned tea party, complete with cookies and chocolate-covered strawberries.

"Not all of the women at Westwood Commons are technically mothers, but they are all mothers to each and every one of us," said Cathy Toney, activities director.

For more information about Westwood Commons, call 585-293-2060 or visit bit.ly/1Wvc1wg.

Westwood Commons resident Elaine Koch shows off her flower pot at the senior community's recent Mother's Day tea party. PHOTO PROVIDED

Westwood Commons resident Lucille Connell meets with violinist Lynn Arnold, who has performed at the community's Mother's Day celebration for six years. PHOTO PROVIDED

Westwood Commons resident Jane Harriff enjoys her flower pot at the Senior Living Community's recent Mother's Day tea party. PHOTO PROVIDED