

Seniors enjoy Crawdads game

The roar of the crowd, the smell of the hot dogs and peanuts and a nail-biter of a game between the Hickory Crawdads and Rome (Ga.) Braves made for a near-perfect day at the ball field.

Despite a 3-2 loss against the Braves, residents from Wexford House, a DePaul Senior Living Community, soaked up every minute of the game on a gorgeous spring day, even stopping for ice cream on the way home. Among those attending were Wexford House residents Frances Genta, Susie Morlock, Valarie Rogers, Olga Gomes, Guy McIntosh, Tommy Ledford, Rick Taylor, Howard Farr and Lester Reinhardt.

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Wexford House residents Rick Taylor and Howard Farr enjoy a recent Crawdads game.