Construction has begun on Wheatfield Commons, a 114-bed DePaul Senior Living Community on Forest Parkway.

The 55,000-square-foot senior living community on is scheduled for completion in the fall of 2017.

Wheatfield Commons will be a country style community with dormered windows, French doors, and covered porch. Residents in assisted living can choose fully-furnished private or semi-private accommodations. All units have kitchenettes with a refrigerator, sink, and microwave. Suites will feature a generous bedroom and a living and dining area. Residents in assisted living can also enjoy lounges, activity space, a bathing spa, and ready access to a doctor's office and staff support areas. Memory care residents will enjoy spacious private and semi-private bedrooms and inviting living, dining and activity areas.

"We look forward to playing a vital role in the lives of seniors and their families in Niagara County and providing the very highest quality services to those who will be in our care," said DePaul President Mark Fuller.

Calamar Land Development Corporation will be overseeing development of Wheatfield Commons.

"We've been working on this project for a very long time and it's wonderful to see it come to fruition," said Calamar Chairman & CEO Kenneth M. Franasiak.

All-inclusive rates include three nutritious meals approved by a registered dietician, medication assistance, and assistance with the activities of daily living as needed including housekeeping, laundry and linen services. Residents also enjoy a full schedule of life-enriching activities, beauty and barbershop services on site, fun outings and events and worship services.

DePaul staff work closely with residents and family members to develop a personalized approach to delivering support and services which appropriately meet each residents' needs. In addition to Wheatfield Commons, DePaul currently cares for over 1,700 seniors at four senior living communities in New York state, 14 in North Carolina and one in South Carolina.
