The Magic of Music

Special to The News Herald

HILDEBRAN — The gospel singers in the group John 3:16 have been helping the residents of Cambridge House, a DePaul Senior Living Community, discover the “Magic of Music” about twice a month for more than five years.

Sept. 7-13 was National Assisted Living Week and the theme was the “Magic of Music,” which recognized the integral role and transformational effect music has in assisted-living residences every day.

Cambridge House residents Linda Mack and Vera Hudson enjoyed a moment with Judy Cannon, singer with John 3:16.

The gospel singers have been performing at senior centers in Hickory and Hildebran since 2007, sometimes seven to eight times a month.

“We just love what we do,” group member Jean Hicks said. “We won’t take money, as long as God provides us gas money and way to get there. We do it because we love it.”

include Robert Branch, Judy Cannon, Luther Hicks and Jean Hicks. The group encourages the seniors to sing along.

“We go in hopes of being a blessing, but many times they bless us more than we could ever bless them,” Hicks said.
