

HISTORY

HISTORIC CARRIAGE RETURNS 140 YEARS LATER

Late 19th century brougham-style carriage returns to Cunningham. PAGE A5

Historic carriage returns to Rochester

Submitted By DePaul

More than 140 years after leaving the Cunningham Carriage Factory on Litchfield Street in Rochester, New York, a late-19th century brougham-style carriage has returned home. After sitting vacant for 25 years, DePaul is getting ready to re-open the doors of the former Cunningham Carriage Factory as 71 mid-market loft apartments. At the centerpiece of it will be the original Cunningham Carriage acquired from John Greenall of the Greenall Carriage House of Windsor, VT, who has owned the luxury carriage for 40 years.

"I am so happy a group

Pictured here, antique carriage collector John Greenall shows Vice President of DePaul Properties, Inc. Gillian Conde some of the intricacies of the Brougham-style Cunningham Carriage which will be on display in the DePaul Carriage Factory Apartments. SUBMITTED PHOTOS

that cares like DePaul will truly appreciate this piece of history," he said. "This vehicle was one from my personal collection. It was one of the first I ever acquired, so to have them go to good homes where they'll be appreciated is very important to me."

HISTORY

This photo from 1920 shows workers on a motor assembly line.