More than 50 years after returning from the Korean War where he served in the U.S. Air Force, Dan Troy, a resident at Horizons in Canandaigua, had the opportunity to fly from Rochester to Washington, D.C., through Honor Flight Rochester. SUBMITTED PHOTO

Horizons resident Dan Troy said that being able to experience Honor Flight has been a true honor. He hopes he and his son can take time out to volunteer with Honor Flight's ground crews, welcoming returning veterans and raising money to help continue the service. SUBMITTED PHOTO
