ROCHESTER — Horizons, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Canandaigua, is the champion of the eighth annual DePaul Senior Living Olympics, which took place on Friday, Oct. 24, at DePaul's Recreation Center, located at 1931 Buffalo Road.

Residents from Westwood Commons in North Chili, Woodcrest Commons in Henrietta and Horizons in Canandaigua, as well as two communities located in Buffalo, Kenwell and Glenwell, participated in the games along with residents from the Shire at Culverton. Events included a spelling bee, shuffleboard, a putting green and bean bag toss, bowling, Wii Bowling, word search and ladder golf.
