

Annie Riggs celebrates 100

Annie Midkiff Riggs celebrated her 100th birthday on Sept. 28, 2014. She was born Sept. 30, 1914. The celebration was held at Flat Rock Baptist Church where she is the oldest member.

Annie Riggs was honored the week before by Sarah Simpson at Sarah's Beauty Boutique where she goes each week to have her hair done. Miss Annie resides at Twelve Oaks where another celebration was held on the day of her birthday.

Ms. Riggs was also honored by a visit from Mount Airy mayor, Deborah Cochran who presented her with a proclamation that proclaimed Sept. 30, 2014 to be Annie Riggs Day in Mount Airy.

All of the birthday celebrations were overwhelming. Riggs enjoyed seeing and visiting with all who came by for a visit. She is thankful and blessed for her many, many friends.

Submitted photos

Annie Riggs gets a hug from great niece Amy Crabbe.

Mike and Peggy Hensley wish Annie Riggs a happy birthday.

Annie Riggs catches up with friends; Sue Simmons Smith, Pauline Pardue, great niece Mollie Tilley and niece Frances Hiatt in back.