Spotlight on Dancers at Westwood

Submitted to The Post

The Spotlight Dancers have danced their way into the hearts of the residents at Westwood Commons, a DePaul Senior Living Community. The group recently performed a variety of styles including pointe, tap, jazz, Irish and acro-dance routines for residents.

Dance instructor Anastasia Bechtold said her Churchville-based dance troupe has performed more than five times at Westwood Commons, featuring a variety of styles including ballet, tap, lyrical and Irish.

"Our dancers at Spotlight perform at various community events and venues," said Bechtold.

Westwood Commons residents Jane Harriff, Adelaide Swetz, Isabelle Jackson, and Louise Ziegler along with Spotlight Dancers Amanda Ball, Quinn Chapell, Aurora Coleman, Ashlee Donnelly, Alex Dowd, Jessica McCane, Alexis Moore, Becca Phelps and Nicole Pritchard. SUBMITTED

"The opportunity to dance for the seniors at Westwood Commons is a blessing for dancers and the residents."
