Partner

2013 FORTY UNDER 40

Carey Ann Denefrio

*Confidential law clerk to Magistrate Judge Jonathan Feldman
U.S. District Court*

Age: 38

Education: B.A., political science, Boston College;
J.D., Albany Law School

Family: Husband Timothy Lyster; son, 3 months

Residence: Rochester

Professional responsibilities: Works on federal criminal and civil cases and assists judge with the cases before him. Conducts legal research, drafts and edits judicial opinions, drafts bench memoranda, assists with all aspects of trial and trial preparation, attends court proceedings and keeps the judge abreast of case developments.

Professional and community leadership: Board member, grants committee member and fund development committee member, Foundation of the Monroe County Bar; board member and fund development committee member, Catholic Charities Community Services; nominating committee member, Genesee Center for the Arts and Education.

Surprising fact: Before law school I traveled around the world for two years, and I have visited 30 countries.

Ten years from now: I hope to still be enjoying the practice of law and the legal community. I plan to continue to be actively engaged in community service. I hope to be respected by my peers for both my legal work and community contributions. I also look forward to spending quality time with my family and watching my newborn son grow.
