Pictured here, Woodcrest Commons resident Roseanne Bourne works on making bracelets and necklaces which were sold with proceeds going to the Strides Against Breast Cancer walk. The team raised $725 for the walk by selling cookies, collecting change and raffling off gift baskets with items donated by area businesses. PROVIDED

Woodcrest Commons recently participated in the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer walk on Oct. 20 at Frontier Field. Participating in the walk were Woodcrest Commons Administrator Maryellen Borer, Activities Director Lindsay Lown, Receptionist Robin Guy and Case Manager Paul LaDue. PROVIDED

Frontier Communications honored the company's employee and community veterans during a "Wall of Heroes" Veterans Day tribute at its West Henrietta Road location. As part of the ceremony, Frontier unveiled a wall of photos for each self-identified employee veteran and presented each with a thank you letter and pin. Pictured here are Frontier employees Wordene Day and Nancy Phillips. PROVIDED
