

A Sweetheart of a Centenarian

Woodcrest Commons, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Henrietta, celebrated Valentine's Day with sweet treats, sentimental sing-alongs and a sweetheart celebrating her 100th birthday!

Resident Antonia Rios-Boubnoff is a Peruvian native. A nurse for many decades, Antonia's proudest moment was when she became a United States citizen and was able to pass her nursing examination. She enjoyed her time in the obstetrics unit helping deliver babies. During her lifetime, she's traveled throughout Europe and Africa.

In her spare time, Antonia enjoyed playing basketball and tennis and listening to music. She continues to enjoy dancing to this day.

"Antonia has an amazing personality and great spirit," said Activities Director Lindsay Lown. "She loves it when we have animals or kids visiting and she's always ready for a good party!"

Monroe County Executive Maggie Brooks paid a visit to Woodcrest Commons to declare February 14, 2014 Antonia Rios-Boubnoff Day.
