

The Enquirer Journal

Monroe's newspaper since 1873

Above: Woodridge resident Patricia Coffey displays her handmade fan. Residents made these fans as a project to beat the summer heat.

Left: Woodridge residents Jean Adams and Gloria King check out produce at the Union County Farmers Market

Contributed photos

Woodridge Senior Living welcomes summer

FROM STAFF REPORTS

Longer days means warm breezes, colorful flowers and fresh fruits and vegetables.

Residents at Woodridge, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Monroe, are gearing up for summer with gardening therapy, farmers markets and seasonal crafts.

Seniors soaked in the flavors of summer at the Union County Farmers Market, scooping up fresh produce and homemade cookies.

Residents also made fans to face the heat of summer.