LOCKPORT, N.Y. (AP) - A 60-unit, three-story affordable housing development has opened in Niagara County.

Gov. Andrew Cuomo announced Thursday that the $177 million Packet Boat Landing Apartments in Lockport had its grand opening.

The Democrat says the complex contains 60 new one-bedroom units, including 21 with supportive ser It's named after the packet boats that used to ply the Erie Canal, which cuts through Lockport.

The project is the latest in the state's ongoing five-year, $20 billion plan to alleviate New York's homelessness problem while making more affordable housing units available. The plan includes multi and single-family housing, community development and rent stabilization.

Since 2011, the state Homes and Community Renewal program has built or preserved more than 500 affordable homes in Niagara County.
