

A LONG, PROUD LIFE — Jennie Altes, a resident at Glenwell, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Cheektowaga, recently celebrated her 100th birthday. She hit the century mark on July 15 and reminisced about her childhood on her family's farm and her years spent working in a pharmacy and managing a bank in Hamburg. Her passions have included volunteering, attending church, sewing, doing needlepoint and traveling extensively. She is shown here with her graduation photograph from Springville High School.
