

Cambridge House

Classic car owners put on show for residents

Special to The News Herald

Cambridge House, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Hildebran, transformed its parking lot into a classic car show when more than a dozen community members rolled up in classic and vintage cars.

The cars spanned decades from a 1936 Ford to a 1970s Volkswagen bus. Local resident David Puett, who helped coordinate the event, said classic cars are an opportunity to take a walk down memory lane.

"It brings back memories of high school days," said Puett. "Some of the guys like to get their old Chevilles and Camaros or modified street rods. It's just a good time to get out and show them off."

Cambridge House would like to extend its gratitude to the following folks for bringing the classic and vintage cars out for residents to enjoy:

» David Honeycutt, 1936 Ford

» Jim Bright, 1966 Corvette

» Charles and Dolores Smith, 1931 Cadillac

» John Vaughn, 1950 Chevrolet

» David Puett, 1940 Chevrolet

» Steve Ward, donated old car garage signs

» Harry Reep, 1970 Volkswagen Bus

» Bill Davis, 1948 Chevrolet

» Vic Klashorst, 1963 Ford Falcon

» Larry Mosteller, 1940 Ford

» Dennis Cloer, 1959 Plymouth

For more information about Cambridge House, call administrator Amber Minton at 828-325-4980 or visit aminton@depaul.org.

SUBMITTED PHOTOS/DAVID PUETT VIA CAMBRIDGE HOUSE

Pictured are Cambridge House residents Sylvia Jones, Bonnie Autrey, activities director Gabby Houston and resident Loretta Sutherland in front of a 1970s Volkswagen bus.

Resident Billy Clontz checks out a 1959 Plymouth.

Resident Shirley Price beside a 1940 Ford.

John Farthing and Gabby Houston with a 1950s Chevrolet.