CELEBRATING A CENTURY – Angeline Cruver, shown at left in her younger years and at right currently, recently celebrated her 100th birthday surrounded by friends and Family at Glenwell, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Cheektowaga. Born in Spain, Cruver's family moved to the area when she was a young girl. She married Elmer Cruver in April 1957 and settled in Orchard Park. She owned hair salons, including one inside her home, was an avid dancer and regularly enjoyed getting dressed up for a night on the town. Her advice for longevity is "to have fun, take care of yourself and be nice to others."
