

Local News

Thursday, September 26, 2019

CELEBRATING A CENTENARIAN — Arthur Abramowski, a resident of Glennwell, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Cheektowaga, celebrated his 100th birthday on Sept. 16, in close proximity to National Centenarian Day on Sept. 22. Born to a Polish-American family in Buffalo, Arthur was an Army sergeant during World War II. His battalion was one of the first to help liberate the Nazi concentration camps in Europe, a fact he's very proud of. He and his wife Cecelia had three children, six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Abramowski was very handy around the house and he also enjoyed bowling and traveling to see family. He worked for many years as a sheet metal worker at Westinghouse in Buffalo. He attributes his longevity to faith, family and staying active.