

Westwood Commons seniors go for the gold

Seniors and staff from Westwood Commons compete in the DePaul Senior Olympics. Pictured clockwise, from left, are Ruth Willis, Joyce Vembre, Florence Michalowski, Jerry Yazback, Cathy Toney, Manuel Gutierrez, Caitlyn Mark, Alex Pocchiaro, Mary Masceri and Mary Ann Comstock. [PHOTOS PROVIDED]

Westwood Commons resident Mary Ann Comstock and activity director Cathy Toney lead the team during the opening ceremony of DePaul's Senior Olympics.

Messenger Post Media

Competition, camaraderie and team spirit were on display at the 12th annual DePaul Senior Olympics recently held in Rochester.

Residents of Westwood Commons, a senior living community in North Chili, brought their A-game to the Senior Olympics and won.

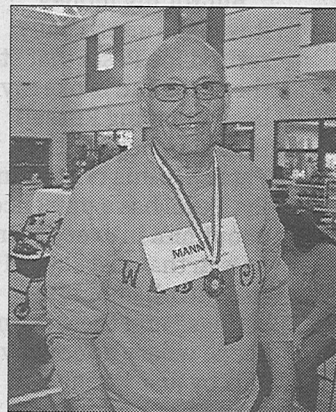

The Westwood Commons team consisted of Mary Ann Comstock, Manuel Gutierrez, administrator Caitlyn Mark, Mary Masceri, Florence Michalowski, Alex Pocchiaro, activity director Cathy Toney, Joyce Vembre, Ruth Willis and Jerry Yazback.

Events included a spelling bee, word search, ladder golf,

Activity director Cathy Toney shows off the trophy that Westwood Commons took home after winning the competition.

shuffleboard, putting green, arm archery and Wii Bowling. Westwood Commons competed against residents from Glenwell in Cheektowaga, Woodcrest Commons in Henrietta, Horizons in Canandaigua and Wheatfield Commons in North Tonawanda.

Westwood Commons resident Manuel Gutierrez takes a medal in putt-putt golf.

Westwood Commons resident Florence Michalowski competes in the bean bag toss.