

DAILY MESSENGER

Friday, December 27, 2019

Horizons resident Rick Keller fills a shoebox with toys and hygiene items for Operation Christmas Child, which benefits children affected by war, poverty, disaster, famine and disease. [PHOTO PROVIDED]

Horizons resident Carole Flint organizes a group of residents to fill shoeboxes with notebooks, coloring books, Play-Doh, hair combs and soap for Operation Christmas Child. [PHOTO PROVIDED]

Horizons resident Ruthie DePaul assembles a box for Operation Christmas Child, a project of international relief organization Samaritan's Purse. [PHOTO PROVIDED]

Horizons resident Susan Stewart and activity director Breanne Reith participate in Operation Christmas Child at the Canandaigua senior living community. Each resident included a personal note in their boxes to wish the recipient a merry Christmas. [PHOTO PROVIDED]