

Reminiscing about kissing

(Hickory, NC) - Who could pass up the opportunity to possibly kiss your high school crush under the guise of fundraising for your school? Residents at Hickory Village Memory Care, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Hickory, took a trip down memory lane to reminisce about kissing booths. Pictured are resident Nora Windom, Nancy Martin and Personal Care Assistant Whitney Ross and Clyde Huffman all pose for a photo opp in the "kissing booth" at Hickory Village Memory Care.

While a number of the female residents claimed that they passed on the kissing booths in their youth, Activities Director Jessica White teased them with being too scared to "kiss and tell."

"I knew someone was getting smooches," she joked. "This really was a fun little activity today that was filled with lots of laughter and smiles."

For more information about Hickory Village Memory Care, please contact Administrator Anna Wilson at (828) 322-2230, at awilson@depaul.org or visit us on Facebook.

Clyde Huffman

Nancy Martin

Nora Windom