Chili, N.Y. — Our bright spot Thursday shines on seniors at Westwood Commons in Chili, who recently reached out to high school seniors at Churchville-Chili.

Kyla Alexander and Tyler and Kyle Ajit-Singh each received copies of the Dr. Seuss Classic, "Oh, the Places You'll Go!"

The Westwood Commons residents wished them success beyond graduation and resident Jerry Yazback even read a speech to them over the intercom.

Seniors helping seniors: a bright spot spanning the generations.
