

Oh, the Places You'll Go – Westwood Commons in North Chili pulled out all the stops to celebrate staff members and graduates with the Churchville-Chili class of 2020, (l-r) Kyle Ajitsingh, Tyler Ajitsingh, and Kyla Alexander. The graduates each received a copy of the Dr. Seuss book, Oh, the Places You'll Go!, inscribed with notes by staff wishing them success on their new journey. The halls were decorated in the students' school colors as resident Jerry Yazback read a speech over the intercom congratulating them on their hard work. Provided information and photo.
