On her quest to complete her Gold Award, the highest award in Girl Scouts, local teen Madeline Wright recently donated baby dolls and stuffed dogs to residents at Wexford House, a DePaul Senior Living Community in Denver. Prior to the pandemic, Madeline planned to host an "adoption party" for residents to pair them with baby dolls and dogs (plus birth certificates), and though the party was not able to take place, she was still able to share these precious gifts with our residents. Pictured with their gifts are Wexford House residents Alda Bean (above) and Tony Malagese (below left) and Trena McCree (below, right).
