WALLACE — It was all treats and no tricks in a great pumpkin exchange at Dayspring of Wallace, a DePaul Senior Living Community. Generations Church donated 80 pumpkins, which were then painted by residents and delivered to patients at Southport Health and Rehabilitation Center.

Dayspring of Wallace activities director Lisa Penny said the residents loved decorating the pumpkins, while Liz Mueller, activities director at Southport Health & Rehabilitation Center, said the residents were excited to receive their painted pumpkins.

"Who doesn't like to get a present?" she said. "Thank you to the residents of Dayspring and Generations Church for passing it forward!"

For more information about Dayspring of Wallace, please contact Administrator Angela Eckard at 910-285-9050, at aeckard@depaul.org or visit the Facebook page, @dayspringofwallace.
