

The DePaul family has always worked hard to make a difference for our people and our communities. In these unprecedented times, we are forever grateful for the countless acts of humanity that raise our spirits and make each day brighter. We hope you'll join us in celebrating the good that we see at DePaul, as we navigate this journey together.

DePaul Strong #32 – May 10, 2021

Long Awaited Hugs

In accordance with safety regulations and protocols, scheduled visitation has begun at many of DePaul's senior living communities in New York, North Carolina and South Carolina.

Even the face masks couldn't cover up the joy of seeing residents reunited with loved ones at Twelve Oaks in Mt. Airy, North Carolina.

Spring Into Bloom

From seeds and flowers to freshly hatched baby ducks, residents are enjoying the changing season and celebrating Earth Day.

Pictured bottom row, residents at the Trolley Station Apartments in Canandaigua, New York decorated flowerpots on Earth Day and residents at Heath House in Lincolnton, North Carolina planted seeds. Spring has sprung at Wheatfield Commons in North Tonawanda, New York where residents have been arranging flowers donated by Trader Joe's and watching the baby ducks which have hatched outside in the courtyard.

Arts and Crafts

DePaul residents have been channeling their inner Picasso and flexing their creativity!

Residents at Pee Dee Gardens in Florence, South Carolina and Wheatfield Commons in North Tonawanda, New York show off a myriad of cute and colorful arts and craft projects!

La Rosa Villas in LeRoy, New York produced Pinterest-worthy crafts including ceramics and homemade binder clip art.

And the DePaul Recreation Department made the rounds to sites in the Rochester, New York area for a relaxing day of rock art!

Stay tuned for more good news...
