

Twelve Oakes residents enjoy summer fun

Summer fun has been on tap at Twelve Oaks retirement center with seasonal crafts, garden therapy and other activities for the residents there.

"Residents are staying cool and having fun with a flurry of activity at the DePaul Senior Living Community in Mount Airy," the facility's officials said when sharing some of those activities.

Clara Hundley cools down with a popsicle on the porch.

Submitted photos

Shelby Jean admires a sunflower plant she received as a gift which is now blooming in the garden at Twelve Oaks

Hilda Bowen completing a summer wreath craft project.

Barbara Childress shows off the adoption certificate for a stuffed animal she recently received and named Anna.

Margaret Davis shows some mint she planted.