CANANDAIGUA — Competition and camaraderie were on display at the Trolley Station Apartments during the recent third annual Bean Bags and Barbecue competition. Following a cookout in the courtyard, first responders from across the area were paired up with residents of the Trolley Station Apartments for the cornhole competition.

New York State Sen. Pam Helming was on hand. Among the agencies that competed alongside residents were the New York State Police, the Ontario County Sheriff's Office, the Canandaigua Fire Department, Canandaigua's Emergency Squad and The United Church of Canandaigua (Presbyterian-American Baptist).
