

SEIZING THE (HOLI)DAY

Residents of Heritage Manor of Lockport, a DePaul Senior Living Community, have many opportunities to stay engaged and connected. Here, from left, Joyce Atwater, Alice Remus and Administrator Shannon Radlich head outdoors on Groundhog Day with “Bunxsutawney Birdie” — who did not see her shadow, indicating an early spring is on the way.

Photos by Amy Cavalier | Contributor

Above, Lydia Masters visited the hot cocoa bar at Heritage Manor on National Hot Chocolate Day (January 31).

At right, on just another winter day, Geri visits with puppy Vina, who’s held by resident care supervisor Stephine Woods.

John Lobczowski celebrated National Hot Chocolate Day with his daughter and great-grandchildren.