

Ageless Adventures

at  WHEATFIELD COMMONS

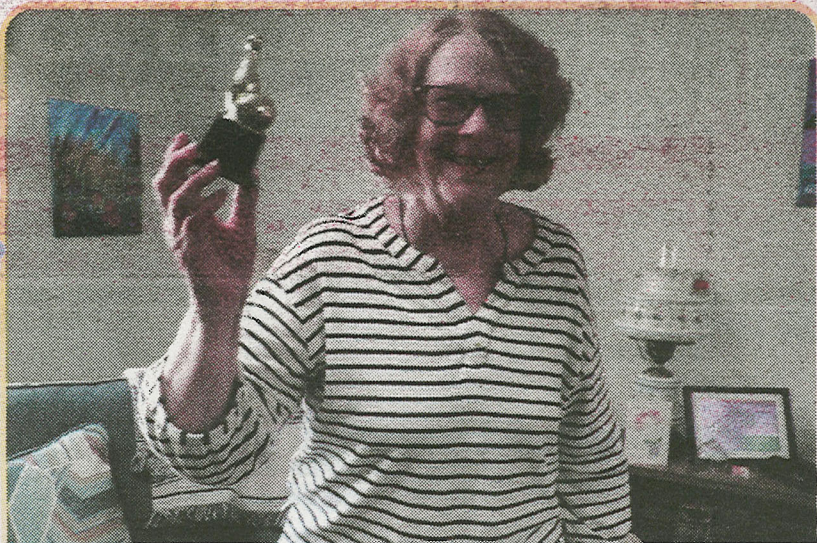

National Assisted Living Week, celebrated from Sept. 7 to 13, is an opportunity to highlight the role of assisted living in caring seniors. Wheatfield Commons in North Tonawanda recognized the annual observance with a variety of events and activities designed around this year's "Ageless Adventures" theme. National Assisted Living Week kicked off with a trip back to the 1960s including a fun photoshoot, bean bag toss, records from the era, and fake tattoos. For more information about Wheatfield Commons, contact Regional Director Stacie Major or Marketing Director John Tomes at 716-475-7600. Stacie can also be reached at smajor@depaul.org and John can be reached at jtomes@depaul.org.

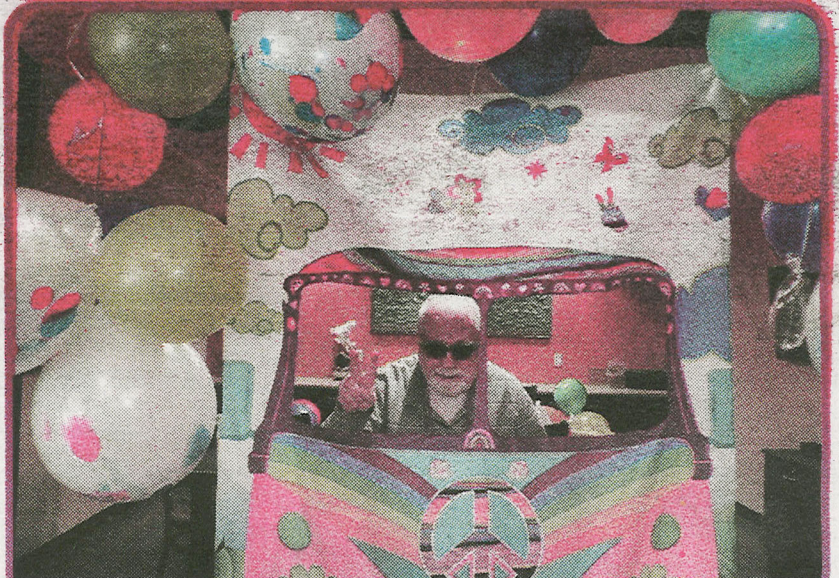

A trip to the Herschell Carrousel Factory Museum never fails to take us back in time to simpler days. After soaking up the fascinating history and artifacts, residents rounded out their visit with a ride on The "Big" 1916 Number One Special Carrousel. Pictured bottom row, right on the outing is Rose Viechio.

Wii bowling and bingo have been stirring up some fun competitions. Pictured with a trophy earned in Wii bowling is Sharon Murray.

Residents checked bowling off their summer bucket list with a visit to Cherry Laurel Lanes in Amherst. Pictured stepping up to bowl, is Patricia Roch.

Farm Day included a stop at a farmer's market to shop for apples and cucumbers for homemade pickles and applesauce, lunch at Wagner's Farm Market, and a drive on the countryside. Pictured amidst the pumpkins is Arlene Hughes.
